■ ■ Tom Brouse has been a leader with Plaza Companies since its inception more than 30 years ago. He has been instrumental in the firm's tremendous growth and the establishment of Plaza Companies' reputation for excellence in healthcare facilities, particularly in regards to senior housing and bioscience real estate.

Mr. Brouse's primary responsibilities include establishing and maintaining numerous debt and equity funding relationships and providing strategic and organizational direction for the firm, while also focusing heavily on the companies' senior living portfolio.

Prior to joining Plaza Companies in 1984, Mr. Brouse spent more than a decade in public accounting; the last three years as a partner with a large southwest regional public accounting firm. He earned a Bachelors Degree in Accounting from Arizona State University, followed by a Masters Degree in Accounting with an emphasis in taxation, also from Arizona State University.

Mr. Brouse has been involved in numerous civic and social endeavors with professional organizations both within Arizona and nationally, including the American Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Arizona Society of Certified Public Accountants, the latter of which he chaired the IRS Liaison and the Technical Tax Presentation Committees. Mr. Brouse's various community involvements include holding positions as the former Board President of the Deer Valley and Northwest Valley YMCAs, the former President of the Peoria Arrowhead Lions Club and memberships in both the Deer Valley Optimist Club and the Arizona State Lions Foundation. Mr. Brouse also served on the educational staff of Glendale Community College as a lecturer on tax accounting.
