Plaza Companies to Provide Property Management Services For City of Phoenix Family Advocacy Center

Agreement Expands Company's Management Footprint in Midtown Phoenix

PHOENIX (August 4, 2020) — Plaza Companies has been selected to provide property management services to the City of Phoenix's Family Advocacy Center at 2120 N. Central Avenue.

The three-story office building includes a two-story parking structure and includes more than 87,000 square feet of space. It expands Plaza's property management portfolio in the midtown Phoenix area, as the company's overall management portfolio approaches 4 million square feet. Plaza Companies will take over property management duties on September 30.

The Family Advocacy Center is home to a broad spectrum of programs provided by the City of Phoenix to help residents in need or who are dealing with personal, family or financial issues. Plaza currently provides property management services to several office buildings in the area, as well as its Park Central development, the new Helios Education Foundation building and the TGen building in downtown Phoenix.

"We are pleased to expand our property management portfolio and to be able to assist the City of Phoenix at this critical facility for residents," said Plaza Companies Senior Vice President of Property and Facilities Management Peggy Maxwell. "Our growing list of central Phoenix properties positions the company's property management division well for the future, and we look forward to working with the City on this important building."

Plaza Companies currently has about 12 million square feet in its property portfolio, including numerous high-profile projects including SkySong, The ASU Scottsdale Innovation Center, Park Central, and the TGen Building, among others.

Plaza Companies, based in Peoria, Arizona, is an esteemed leader in the developing and managing of medical office and commercial office properties, technology and bioscience facilities, mixed-use properties and senior housing communities. Since its founding in 1982, this full-service, specialized real estate firm has established a proud portfolio stretching across the greater Phoenix area of more than 5.5 million square feet valued at more than $1 billion.
