Bill Cook is Senior Vice President of Brokerage Services at Plaza Companies. Bill has been with Plaza Companies since 2013, originally starting in the construction management department. Bill transitioned to the brokerage team in 2014 with a focus on leasing and investment sales of office properties. Since that time, he has become an industry's leader in medical and office real estate. Since 2016 Bill has worked on more than 5,000,000 square feet of transactions. Dividing his time between landlord and tenant representation, Bill has established strong ties with some of the Valley's leading employers and landlords. Some of the companies he has worked with include Banner Health, HonorHealth, Blue Buffalo, Roadmaster Group, Health Care Trust, Inc., and Holualoa Companies. In 2015 Bill, with Margaret Lloyd, were nominated together as brokerage team of the year by AZRE Magazine, and along with the Plaza Brokerage Team has been named Healthcare Broker of the Year in 2019 and 2020 by NAIOP.

Prior to joining the Plaza Team, Bill began his career in real estate in 2003 when he founded an agricultural management business based in Scottsdale. At its height his company managed over 4,000 acres of agricultural land in multiple states. In 2012 Bill joined the acquisitions team at Invision Capital Management, a Scottsdale based hedge fund. Cook was responsible for managing all of the fund's real estate acquisitions. He personally oversaw acquisitions in Arizona as well as in Indiana, and Nevada.

Bill is currently on the Board of Directors for ARTenders and formerly on the Board of Directors of the Men's Arts Council of Phoenix Arizona and is a former chairman of the Copperstate 1000.
